The Free State Foundation's Book Luncheon

"Communications Law and Policy in the Digital Age: The Next Five Years"

WHERE: National Press Club, Washington, DC
WHEN: Wednesday, January 23, 2013 12:00 - 2:15 p.m.

On Wednesday, January 23, 2013, the Free State Foundation will hold a luncheon to celebrate FSF's new book, "Communications Law and Policy in the Digital Age: The Next Five Years," at the National Press Club. Several of the book's contributing authors, all prominent scholars and experts in the field of communications policy, will discuss their chapters and lead a lively, interactive exchange concerning today's hottest-topic issues.

Speakers include:

Christopher Yoo, Professor, University of Pennsylvania Law School, and Member of FSF's Board of Academic Advisors - "Internet Policy Going Forward: Does One Size Still Fit All?"

Daniel Lyons, Professor, Boston College Law School, and Member of FSF's Board of Academic Advisors - "Reforming the Universal Service Fund for the Digital Age"

Ellen Goodman, Professor, Rutgers School of Law – Camden, and Member of FSF's Board of Academic Advisors - "Public Media Policy Reform and Digital Age Realities"

Seth Cooper, FSF Research Fellow - "Restoring a Minimal Regulatory Environment for a Healthy Wireless Future"

To attend the program, please RSVP to Kathee Baker at kbaker@freestatefoundation.org.

A complimentary lunch will be provided to those registered.
