

THE FREE STATE FOUNDATION

A Free Market Think Tank for Maryland.....Because Ideas Matter

Fifth Anniversary Celebration Lunch

Please RSVP to Kathee Baker at kbaker@freestatefoundation.org.

WHERE: Mayflower Hotel, East Room, Washington, DC
WHEN: Wednesday, October 12, 2011, 11:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

The Free State Foundation invites you to help celebrate its Fifth Anniversary of its founding at the Mayflower Hotel on October 12. While our ambitions and goals were clear from the start, we were not so bold then to proclaim with any certainty where we would be in five short years – indisputably one of the nation's leading, most influential, and most respected think tanks promoting free market-oriented, property rights-protective, and rule of law policies.

Special Keynote Speakers

Senator Jim DeMint, Ranking Member, Senate Subcommittee on Communications, Technology, and the Internet

Congressman Marsha Blackburn, Vice-Chair, House Energy and Commerce Committee's Subcommittee on Commerce, Manufacturing, and Trade

Congressman Cliff Stearns, Chairman, House Commerce Committee's Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations

We want you to celebrate with us, as we look back at the past five years, and, most importantly, ahead to the next five. Indeed, the theme of our program is: "Communications Law and Policy in the Digital Age: The Next Five Years."

Consistent with this theme, some members of the Free State Foundation's distinguished Board of Academic Advisors will offer their thoughts concerning how and why communications policy should be changed over the next five years. Those participating and their topics include:

Michelle Connolly, Duke University – Spectrum Policy
Ellen Goodman, Rutgers School of Law - Camden – Public Media
Daniel Lyons, Boston College Law School – USF Reform
Steven Wildman, Michigan State University – Media Policy
Christopher Yoo, University of Pennsylvania Law School – Internet Regulatory Policy

To attend the program, please RSVP to Kathee Baker at kbaker@freestatefoundation.org.

A complimentary lunch will be served, subject to space limitations and confirmed reservations.
