

Job Opening for Legal Fellow or Research Fellow: The Free State Foundation, a leading non-partisan free market-oriented think tank with a strong emphasis on communications and Internet law and policy and intellectual property matters, is seeking to hire a Legal Fellow or Research Fellow. At least some prior experience regarding issues involving communications and Internet law and policy is a definite plus. Expertise with respect to understanding economic regulation and competition issues in markets such as telecommunications is also a definite plus.

Excellent research and writing skills, including the ability to write lucidly and persuasively from a free market and pro-property rights perspective for policy audiences is an absolute prerequisite. Applicants must possess some advanced degree beyond a bachelor's degree, with law or economics a plus. Some off-site and part-time work is possible.

The Free State Foundation offers competitive compensation and benefits that are commensurate with an applicant's level of experience and expertise. To apply, send a resume and a writing sample to lmay@freestatefoundation.org. For information regarding FSF, visit <http://www.freestatefoundation.org>.
